

LINCOLN'S LAST NIGHT

Press Photos

1. Lincoln Soldier's Cemetery

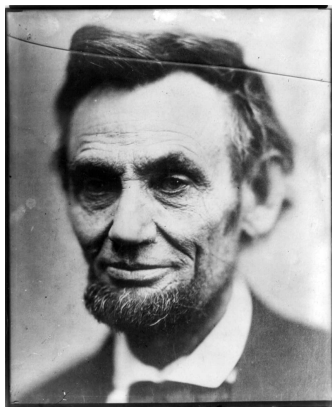

2. Lincoln train to Gettysburg

3. Lincoln White House

Fritz Klein, one of the most famous Lincoln actors in the United States, also portrays the President in 'Lincoln's Last Night'. One of his most important speeches was the Gettysburg Address. The images show Lincoln preparing a speech at his White House desk and travelling by train on his way to the Soldiers' Cemetery.

4. Histo - Lincoln last photo

5. Histo – Lincoln Assassination

One of the last photos of Abraham Lincoln was taken by Alexander Gardner. While it was being developed, a crack appeared across the top, as if by some evil premonition. Shortly afterwards, Lincoln was assassinated at the Ford Theater on 14th April 1865 by the actor John Wilkes Booth.

6. Lincoln deathbed

7. Lincoln autopsy

8. Booth on river

All attempts to revive the President are in vain – Lincoln dies that very night. His murderer, played by Brian Merrick, flees with his accomplice through the marshland of Maryland.

9. Hunting down Booth

10. Execution Surratt

11. Booth escape

Stanton, the Minister of War, immediately sends out the cavalry to hunt down the murderer. For several days, a game of cat-and-mouse between the cavalry and Booth ensues. Mary Surratt is hanged for her role in the conspiracy to murder Lincoln.

12. Funeral Train

13. Honor Guard

14. Coffin Funeral Train

After Lincoln's assassination the nation is in shock. For 12 days, the coffin with Lincoln's body travels across the country. Soldiers pay him their last respects. At every stop, the train is met by thousands of mourners.

Photos: VIDICOM / For higher quality images, please go to: „http://vidicom-tv.com/Lincoln“